

Dear Military Spouses,

On behalf of the Chief Warrant and Warrant Officers Association, I extend warm greetings and heartfelt appreciation to all military spouses as we celebrate Military Spouse Day.

Today, we honor the resilience, sacrifice, and unwavering support of military spouses across the nation. Your dedication and strength do not go unnoticed. You stand as pillars of strength, holding families together during times of separation, uncertainty, and transition. Your unwavering support enables our service members to fulfill their duties with peace of mind, knowing that their loved ones are cared for and supported on the home front.

Military spouses are the unsung heroes who manage households, juggle responsibilities, and build communities wherever duty calls. Your selflessness and adaptability serve as an inspiration to us all. Whether you're navigating deployments, frequent relocations, or the challenges of balancing family life with career aspirations, your resilience shines brightly, illuminating the path for others to follow.

On this special day, we salute you, our military spouses, for your sacrifices, your courage, and your unwavering commitment to service. Your strength and devotion embody the very essence of resilience, and for that, we are eternally grateful.

Thank you for your service to our nation, for your sacrifices, and for your enduring spirit. May you be celebrated not just today, but every day, for the invaluable contributions you make to our military community and beyond.

With deepest gratitude,

CW04 Christian Westerdahl
National President
Chief Warrant and Warrant Officers Association, USCG