26 May 1976

In addition to the foregoing, CWO MATTESON has always been very active in civilian community programs; i.e., Boy Scouts of America, church and community civic programs. He has been an outstanding father -- his oldest son recently graduated from college and was commissioned a Lieutenant in the United States Marine Corps.

In summary, CWO MATTESON has set an example for all warrant officers to emulate and the Norfolk District Club sincerely hopes that the Special Committee for Distinguished Membership will accept this nomination.

Sincerely,

G. F. LEWIS
